

This resource has been developed for the purposes of assisting in the identification and development of rehabilitation programs for injured or ill employees, and to provide detailed information about common job demands. When supporting an injured employee in their return to work this document is used in conjunction with Workplace Specific Details to ensure information is customised.

Description of the role of the Primary School Principal:

The Principal is responsible for all areas of educational leadership and management of the school. This includes the education and welfare of all students, all educational programs, learning outcomes, the management of employee and employee welfare development, financial management of the school, the management of the school property and developing partnerships between the school and the school community.

This document indicates the average time spent across a working day on common work activities/physical work demands that have been identified as essential to the successful performance of the role. The frequency of performance of work tasks is described by either the Descriptor, Percentage of Time, or Amount of Time based on the average working day of 7 hours as follows:

Descriptor	Percentage of Time	Amount of Time based on 7 hours per day
Not present	0%	0
Rare	1% - 7%	From 4 mins to 30 mins
Occasional	8% - 33%	35 mins to 2 ¼ hours
Frequent	34% - 66%	2 ½ hours to 4 ½ hours
Constant	67% - 100%	4 ¾ hours to 7 hours

This table is derived from the US Department of Labor Physical Demand Characteristics of Work, 1996

Hours of Work and Scheduled Breaks

Hours of Work: Employees work during the normal daily hours of operation of the school during which classes are conducted; this is commonly Monday to Friday. Generally teaching employees are required to be present half an hour before school starts and may be required half an hour after the dismissal in the afternoon. Where special circumstances arise which, in the interests of the school necessitate attendance beyond these hours, the attendance of the employees may be required.

Meal Breaks: Employees are entitled to a lunch break of not less than 30 minutes.

Environmental Factors

The following environmental factors exist in the workplace.

- Low - level ambient noise (from students, traffic, school activities e.g. music practice etc) occasionally requiring considerable voice projection to be heard.
- Some work may be performed outdoors or exposed to the elements.
- Worker/ team relationships – the work environment may require the principal to adjust to and manage different working styles, and demonstrate an ability to work cooperatively.
- Although meal breaks are stipulated, principals may not always receive an uninterrupted break.
- While deadlines exist for many tasks, the level of demand is dependent upon the school environment and staffing level. Principals may also be required to address multiple demands and a large number of un planned interruptions may occur throughout the working day.

Core Workplace Expectations (Organisational, Interpersonal, and Psychosocial).

The following major workplace expectations have been identified with reference to DEC Policies and Guidelines, the NSW Institute of Teachers website and O*NET (the Occupational Information Network, a comprehensive database of worker attributes and job characteristics).

- All employees have a responsibility to comply with legislation, departmental policy, procedures and the DEC Code of Conduct, perform their duties effectively, provide impartial and accurate advice and act in a manner that promotes a productive and harmonious working environment.
- Negotiating with others - In dealing with other people, employees should be able to accommodate and tolerate different opinions and perspectives, and sort out their disagreements by rational discussion.
- Departmental employees have a duty to take reasonable care for the safety and welfare of the students in their charge.
- Establishing and maintaining effective communication – includes appropriate communication with supervisors, peers, subordinates, students, parents and community members
- Employees who work with students have a special responsibility in presenting themselves as appropriate role models for those students.
- Training and Teaching Others – Includes identifying the educational needs of others, developing formal educational or training programs or classes, and teaching or instructing, and assessing and reporting for effective learning
- Principals support and manage employees in creating and maintaining safe and challenging learning environments. Effective strategies for the management of student behaviour and the maintenance of a safe working and learning environment include WHS procedures, student welfare procedures, curriculum and environmental management.
- Investigations – participate in reporting investigation and resolution processes, including mandatory reporting of suspected child abuse or neglect, and participation as a witness or party to performance, discipline, grievance, WorkCover or other processes.
