

Respect

A term used to refer to the way individuals treat each other. Showing respect occurs in many ways, such as waiting to speak, listening and demonstrating understanding, not asking too many direct questions, ensuring that people are not made to feel uncomfortable or uneasy, and generally showing regard for others’ ideas, beliefs and culture.

NSW Department of Education resources to help plan, program and assess creative arts K–12

