

Start Strong Program Logic

Children

Needs	Evidence says...	Inputs	Start Strong activities	Assumptions	Short to medium term outcomes/Outputs	Short to medium term measures	Long-term outcomes	Long-term measures
1 >44% of NSW children are not developmentally on track when starting school 2 Priority cohorts are most risk and experience a widened gap 3 Developmental vulnerability at age 5 can have significant and lifelong consequences	1 Children who start primary school ready to learn have the best chance of thriving 2 Children who participate in a preschool program for only one year are 1.2 times more likely to be developmentally vulnerable in 2 or more domains of the Australian Early Development Census than children who participated for 2 years 3 Children experiencing vulnerability and disadvantage benefit the most from preschool 4 Every $1 invested in supporting all children to attend a preschool program in the year before school starts provides a return of $2 over a child's life	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> NSW Government Start Strong funding Australian Government funding (ongoing and new through the Preschool Reform Agreement) plus Commonwealth Child Care Subsidy Family payment of fees and levies Existing services, work-force and sector infrastructure, e.g. National Quality Framework, Early Years Learning Framework 	Services use Start Strong funding to: Improve the service they provide, for example through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> staff development attraction and retention of staff educational resources program development ...with a focus on quality and meeting the early learning needs of all children in the year before school starts and 3 year olds (where applicable) in their community Reach out to their community to offer and promote quality ECEC to families and children who otherwise may not access it (for 3 year old program funding trial only) Reduce the cost of ECEC for families, using government funding to subsidise their operations and keep fees low (particularly for families who could not otherwise afford it) Full detail about Start Strong Activities are in the Program Guidelines	Funding levels can accommodate an increase in the overall quantum of children attending ECEC Funding changes for providers will create net benefits, rather than transfers of benefits from non-priority to priority cohorts The quantum of available places in childcare will increase as a result of other market stewardship activities	Benefits for children Target cohort receive below benefits of engaging in a quality ECEC (particularly priority cohorts): <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Early identification and response to learning support and other needs Developmental progress Developmentally on track when they start school Enrolment and participation Target cohort enrol in, attend and engage in quality ECEC	Benefits for children <ul style="list-style-type: none"> % of children developmentally on track in all 5 preschool reform agreement domains % of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Children are developmentally on track in all 5 preschool reform agreement domains % of services completing formative assessments Enrolment and participation <ul style="list-style-type: none"> % of children % of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children % of disadvantaged children enrol and/or attend a quality preschool program for at least 600 hours in the year before school starts 	Benefits for children All children are supported to be successful lifelong learners through engagement in quality ECEC, regardless of setting (aligned with introduction of universal pre-kindergarten)	No proposed measures as attribution is not possible for long-term outcomes at this stage

Families

Needs	Evidence says...	Inputs	Start Strong activities	Assumptions	Short to medium term outcomes/Outputs	Short to medium term measures	Long-term outcomes	Long-term measures
1 Families find it difficult to access information and navigate services and supports 2 ECEC is unaffordable for ~39% of Australian families, which impacts children's outcomes and parents' (often women's) economic participation	Increased access to preschool boosts women's workforce participation and supports economic recovery with an estimated: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> >$292 million taxation revenue lift each year in Australia $11 billion boost annually to gross domestic product 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> NSW Government Start Strong funding Australian Government funding (ongoing and new through the Preschool Reform Agreement) plus Commonwealth Child Care Subsidy Family payment of fees and levies Existing services, work-force and sector infrastructure, e.g. National Quality Framework, Early Years Learning Framework 	Services use Start Strong funding to: Improve the service they provide, for example through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> staff development attraction and retention of staff educational resources program development ...with a focus on quality and meeting the early learning needs of all children in the year before school starts and 3 year olds (where applicable) in their community Reach out to their community to offer and promote quality ECEC to families and children who otherwise may not access it (for 3 year old program funding trial only) Reduce the cost of ECEC for families, using government funding to subsidise their operations and keep fees low (particularly for families who could not otherwise afford it) Full detail about Start Strong Activities are in the Program Guidelines	Funding levels can accommodate an increase in the overall quantum of children attending ECEC Funding changes for providers will create net benefits, rather than transfers of benefits from non-priority to priority cohorts The quantum of available places in childcare will increase as a result of other market stewardship activities	Community confidence Parents and carers of target cohort have greater confidence that the quality preschool program meets their child's developmental needs Affordability Target cohort enrol in, attend and engage in quality ECEC	Community confidence <ul style="list-style-type: none"> % of children % of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander children % of disadvantaged children enrolled in a quality preschool program for at least 600 hours in the year before school starts Affordability <ul style="list-style-type: none"> % of funding relief used as intended by services and passed onto families and carers of target cohort % of fees and levies rise at an appropriate rate Cost of ECEC is not a barrier to participation for families 	ECEC Sector meets Demand and Operates Sustainably No barriers to access and affordability for parents and carers of target cohort with preschool free and universally accessible for all families ECEC Sector meets Demand and Operates Sustainably Parents and carers of target cohort have greater choice and capacity to participate in the workforce and women have greater economic opportunities	No proposed measures as attribution is not possible for long-term outcomes at this stage

Services

Needs	Evidence says...	Inputs	Start Strong activities	Assumptions	Short to medium term outcomes/Outputs	Short to medium term measures	Long-term outcomes	Long-term measures
There is a workforce shortage with insufficient numbers of early childhood teachers and educators entering and staying in the sector	A strong, stable ECE sector will help ensure all children make a strong start in life and learning	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> NSW Government Start Strong funding Australian Government funding (ongoing and new through the Preschool Reform Agreement) plus Commonwealth Child Care Subsidy Family payment of fees and levies Existing services, work-force and sector infrastructure, e.g. National Quality Framework, Early Years Learning Framework 	Services use Start Strong funding to: Improve the service they provide, for example through: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> staff development attraction and retention of staff educational resources program development ...with a focus on quality and meeting the early learning needs of all children in the year before school starts and 3 year olds (where applicable) in their community Reach out to their community to offer and promote quality ECEC to families and children who otherwise may not access it (for 3 year old program funding trial only) Reduce the cost of ECEC for families, using government funding to subsidise their operations and keep fees low (particularly for families who could not otherwise afford it) Full detail about Start Strong Activities are in the Program Guidelines	Funding levels can accommodate an increase in the overall quantum of children attending ECEC Funding changes for providers will create net benefits, rather than transfers of benefits from non-priority to priority cohorts The quantum of available places in childcare will increase as a result of other market stewardship activities	Sustainable Sector The ECEC sector meets demand and operates more sustainably Quality Preschool Program All services provide quality preschool learning environments and programs that meet the early learning needs of all children in their community	Sustainable Sector % of staff turnover at a service for early childhood teachers and educators (staff retention rates) Quality Preschool Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> All services are meeting or exceeding National Quality Standards % of services completing Transition to School Statements % of funding allocated to salaries and wages 	Sustainable Sector ECEC is an employer of choice Quality Preschool Program Note: There is national work underway to develop preschool specific quality measures. The measures listed in this logic will be reviewed as part of the broader annual program review.	No proposed measures as attribution is not possible for long-term outcomes at this stage