Women in trades

Free networking breakfast to connect, learn and be inspired

Join other women in trades, apprenticeships and trainees for a morning of networking, conversation and to exchange career inspiration.

Whether you're just starting your apprenticeship or about to finish, this is an excellent opportunity to build your professional network and connect through shared experiences.

What to expect:

- Women in trades panel with guest speaker Louise Azzopardi (tradeswoman and industry ambassador)
- Breakfast and refreshments
- Career support and insights
