

NARRATIVE

Narrative is the way we organise thoughts and make sense of things that happen to us or to other people.

It is through the conventions of narrative that we engage emotionally and intellectually with events, characters, ideas and values.

The way you respond to narrative is influenced by your own culture and life experiences.